I am sorry for any of you who got the last update twice. Sill having Internet issues.

To keep from overloading the last update, I saved four photos for this email.

The top two of are folks greeting us as we did home visits. The folks came out and greeted us everywhere we went.

The young girl in the third photo became a believer two years ago when the church was started. Her father refused to pay her school fees and chased her away from the home until she denies Christ. She lives with an aunt and uncle. We found out she has now missed two full years of school so on Monday, we provided fees (thanks to those of you help these trips with funds) and she is now back in school. The oldest girl in the 7th grade.

The last photo is a man with some form of cancer. Dr. Bonner is working on getting him treatment in Kenya.
