Just a quick update as I sit in the Atlanta Airport waiting for my flight to Amsterdam later this afternoon. Dr. Krabbendam is flying a different route, but he and I will meet (DV) in the morning in Amsterdam and then fly together to Entebbe. Dr. K and I did not plan to travel together, it was just providential. Once in Uganda we will go in different directions

Here is a brief outline of this ministry, but plans always change in Uganda:

- Friday, Ministry in Seeta Nazigo with a marriage seminar and visit the school there
- Saturday - Wednesday, Ministry in Kyamagemule where I will preach, teach Sunday School, teach a class for ladies and another for men, speak at the ordination of some deacons, visit house to house and help evaluate and make plans for the school we have been building since 2008.
- Friday - Sunday, Ministry in Kiroba, the church plant of Hixson Presbyterian in Chattanooga. Again, I will preach and teach some classes and we will visit house to house. The plan is to start a school in Kiroba as well, but not specifics yet on that
- Tuesday I plan to return home

Prayer requests (and remember, Uganda is 8 hours ahead of Central Time so pray when you are going to bed as the day in Uganda will be starting

- Pray that those who hear and whom we visit will be receptive
- Pray that these three churches will continue to grow and be a faithful witness in their villages
- Pray that Satan's efforts to frustrate things will be thwarted
- Pray that Betsy will continue to do well in my absence

Thanks, Bob
