Arrived safely Thursday night and headed straight off on Friday morning to Seeta Nazigo for two teaching sessions. The pastor had requested that I speak in the first session on marriage from 1 Corinthians 7 and from Ephesians 5:22ff in the second. The program went from Noon to 5:00 p.m. I thought the program went very well and I got a lot of good questions. I think I like dealing with questions better than just teaching as you know you are dealing with things that are on their minds. As it almost always does, the issue of polygamy came up and that takes a lot of discussion.

It is Ramadan and Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. After dark, the people come out in mass and the traffic jam was so bad it took us four hours to come from Seeta Nazigo to the guest house. On a Sunday morning, you can make this trip in less than two hours.

Below a photo of the group and two pictures of the facilities in Seeta Nazigo.
